

Meet the team:

The OPAL Team

All the staff at The Milestone School support access to play by being outside with the children, and getting stuck in! In addition, we have team of people who work hard to ensure the play provision available is the best it can possibly be. This team forms the OPAL committee, which meets termly to plan how we can continue to improve our Outdoor Play and Learning Provision.

Play Governor

Vacancy – This role is to advance the richness of play provision for all children at The Milestone School.

OPAL Coordinator

Claire Brooks – Claire is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day provision of Outdoor Play and Learning. She thinks of all the wonderful ideas that make play special and works directly with the children, finding out what they would like and making their views count! OPAL Champions

OPAL Champions

Zoe Limbrick Our OPAL champions are the link between the different departments and the OPAL committee. They feed information back and forwards, listening to new ideas and helping shape the play provision for the whole school.

Outdoor Learning Support Worker

Carolyn Griffin – Carolyn manages the school's dedicated outdoor learning area. She plans and delivers exciting outdoor activities that enriches the class-based learning for different groups across the week.

The rest of the Team:

There are several other members of the OPAL team that form the committee, and make it all happen:

Diane Taylor – The Milestone School Principal.

Sam Proctor – Lead Teacher for Outdoor Play and Learning.
